COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY APRIL 17, 1912.

NUMBER 24

A QUIET AFFAIR.

Miss Sallie Conover and Mr. T. E. Jeffries Married at the Bride's Country Home.

RELATIVES AND A FEW FRIENDS PRESENT.

Last Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eliza Conover, Miss Sallie Conover, one of Adair county's best young women, was married to Mr. Thos. E. Jeffries, a prominent hardware merchant of this place, a gentleman of high character, one whose dealings with his fellow men have won for him many substantial friends.

Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony, which was impressively pronounced by Rev. D. H. Howerton, pastor of the bride.

Immediately after the rites were solemnized the couple drove into Columbia, and to the residence of the groom's mother, Mrs. Caroline Jeffries, where they will reside.

In testimony of the popularity of this very deserving couple, many presents were received.

The News extends its best wishes, trusting that their days may be long in the land of the living, and that prosperity and unalloyed happiness be in evidence in all their undertakings.

The Suffragette.

It has been said the mighty hand That Rocks the cradle rules the land. Facts are facts, and jokes are jokes, But look out for the lady folks.

And when they come they'll make it funny Voting many a mother's sonnie, But will they vote the ticket straight, Or for the handsome candidate.

If any then should raise a racket They'll take him out and tan his jacket, Lambast his back all into blisters Should any bite the suffrage sisters.

Now John, stand here and hold the baby, I'll come back and get her (maybe) The big jug's yonder in th thicket, I'm going to die or beat the ticket.

If they were Boones and Davy Crockets She'd never find their pistol pockets And always when the fight begins, They'll draw their hats and use the pins.

Some to adorn their lofty station, Will jump the stump like Carrie Nation, For some females would happy be Were they females minus the Fe.

J. T. Jones, Montpelier, Ky.

Meader---Bates.

Mr. J. E. Bates and Mrs. Annie Meader were married at the home of Rev. A. H. Davis by that gentleman Sunday at about 1 o'clock. They did not take a bridal trip but went at once to house-keeping in a pretty home on East Mt. Vernon street. The groom is a very prominent business man and a clever gentleman of this city, while his bride is a most excellent lady and very popular. The Times joins their host of friends in wishing them all the good things that can come their way.—Somerset Times.

The bride was the widow of Mr. John C. Meader, who was a native of Columbia, and who died here about sixteen years ago. Her maiden name was Sallee. She was known here as a lady of many noble traits of character.

During the recent high waters in Cumberland river, a great deal of damage was done at Burkesville. The plant of the Burkesville Banner was destroyed and washed away. Another plant will have to be installed before a paper can be issued. This office has the plant formerly used by the Columbia Spectator, a good one, which can be purchased for much less than it is worth.

According to the records of the weather bureau in Kentucky there were on five clear days in March, and with one exception they came singly, being preceded and followed by rain and clouds. The amount of snowfall exceeded the rain in March, the monthly summary showing that there were 6.6 inches of snow and 5.7 inches of rain during March.

Mr. Z. T. Pelley, of Pellyton, has been appointed a Justice in the First Magisterial district, to fill out the unexpired term of R. M. Cooper, resigned. Mr. Pelley is a Democrat and his appointment is made by the Governor.

Resolution of Respects.

Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Rules of the Universe to knock at the door of our lodge, Breeding Lodge No. 515, and call from labor here on earth to refreshment in the Grand Lodge above our beloved brother A. K. Rupe who departed this life April 3, 1912, therefore be it,

Resolved, That in his death our lodge has lost a true and worthy member, his family a kind and loving husband and father, the community an honored and upright citizen, his church an acceptable and useful member.

Resolved, that this lodge extends to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in the loss of a devoted husband and loving father, who taught by precept goodness and kindness.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and a copy sent to the Adair County News for publication.

Committee.

J. W. Jackman,

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom, has removed from the daily walks of life Bro. J. N. Jackman, a zealous Mason, a member of Columbia Lodge, No. 96, his death having occurred Sunday, April 7, 1912, therefore, be it

Resolved, that in the passing of Bro. Jackman Columbia Lodge lost a true and tried Mason, one who loved the fraternity; and who was regular in his attendance until stricken with disease, one who will be missed from our convocations.

2d, That we, as Lodge tender the bereaved wife and children our deepest sympathy, commending them to God, who alone can heal up their wounded hearts.

3rd, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be spread upon the record book of the lodge and a copy sent to the widow and that the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days

Nat Brown.

This fine combined saddle and harness stallion will make the present season at my stable 1 1/2 miles south of Milltown at $10 to insure a living colt. He is a grand son of old Nat Brown and out of an English draft mare. He is unexcelled in disposition, being, so kind and gentle that any lady or child can ride or drive him with perfect safety. If you want to breed to the best don't fail to see this horse.

At the same place I will stand Jack Chinn, one of the best known Jacks in Adair county. Fee $6.00

J. C. Browning.

Mr. Tyler A. Baker, who lives in Cleburne, Texas, a son of Judge H. C. Baker, this place, had the misfortune to lose his residence by fire a few nights ago. The residence was valued at $1,800, partially insured. The Baker residence caught from an adjoining residence which was discovered to be on fire at 9 o'clock at night. Mr. Baker's furniture was also insured, and his exact loss is not known at this time. It is supposed to be about $1,000.

For Sale---A Good Location; Fine Business.

Desiring to retire from the mercantile business, I offer to sell my storehouse, stock of goods and dwelling, or store and goods alone; located at Coburg, Ky., at prices and terms that will insure satisfaction to the purchaser.

This is one of the best locations in Adair county for a general Merchandising and the live, hustling merchant will be well rewarded for his energies, and have the pleasure of dealing with a large and appreciative patronage.

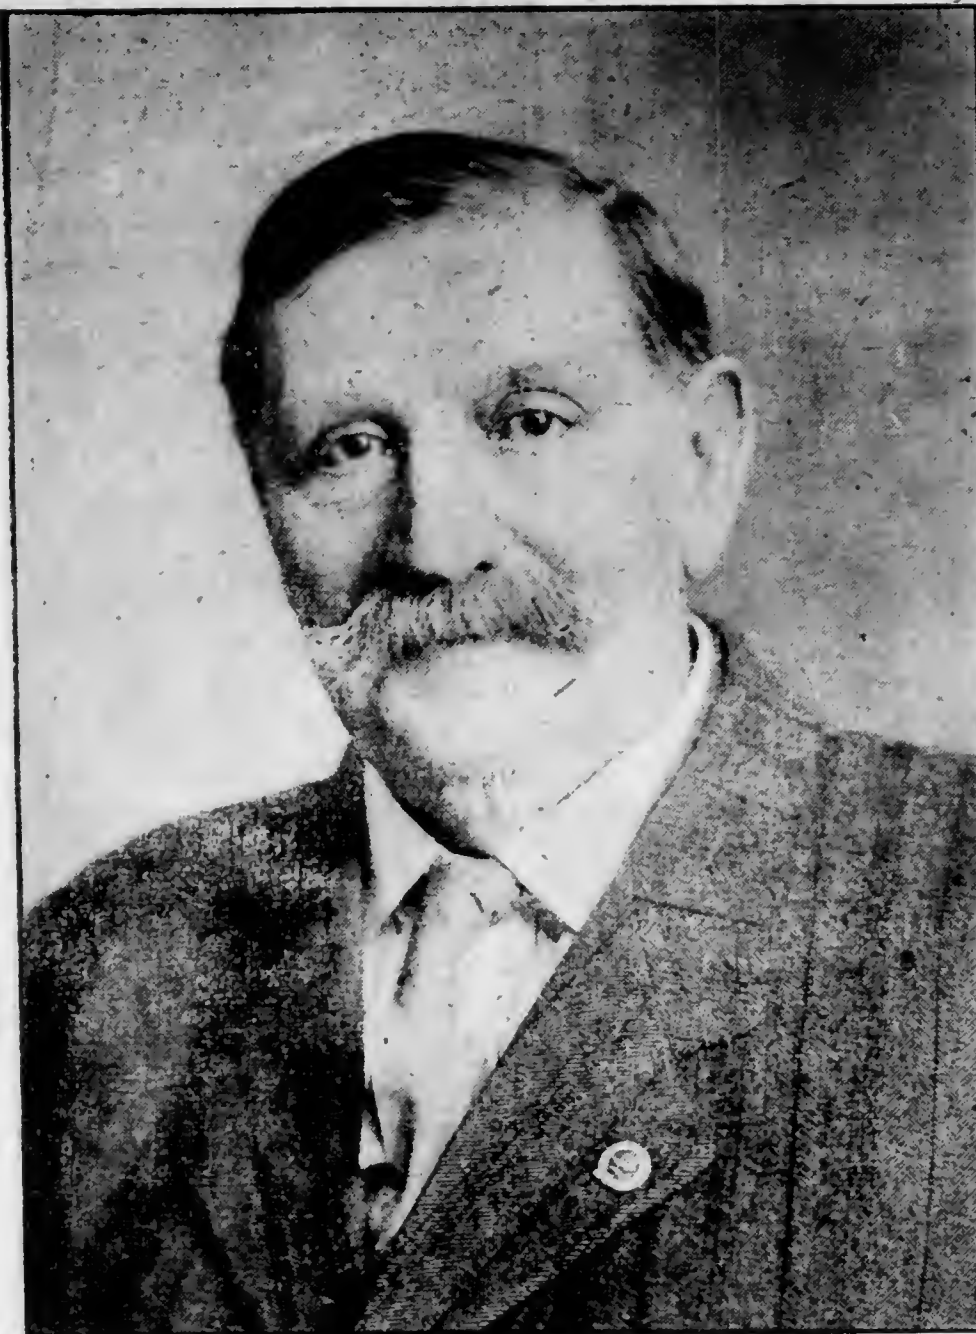

If interested in a good business and location of this kind call on or address:

J. G. Dudgeon,
Coburg, Ky.

Golden Seal.

If you have any Golden Seal, (Yellow Root) for sale, or expect to collect the wild roots during the season, write me, as I want several hundred thousand for planting purposes. Address J. W. Sears, P. O. Box 563, Somerset, Ky. 21-5t

Mr. J. M. Russell has sent to this office a curiosity in the way of a chicken that was hatched at his home. It had four well developed legs,

HON. JACK CHINN.

In another column will be found the announcement of Col. Jack Chinn, of Mercer county, who is a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Eighth district. Col Chinn is perhaps one of the best known men in political circles in Kentucky. He has been an active Democrat all his life, fighting valiantly in every contest for his party. He is exceedingly popular in his home county, having at all times been true to his friends. He has represented his county in the Legislature and also served as State Senator from his district. He asks that his public and private record be examined and if found clean, he would be most thankful if the Democrats in the Eighth Congressional district would support him in his aspirations. He will speak in Columbia the third Monday in May. Come and hear him.

"Central" Speaks.

The following poem from the Somerville Journal will give the people a small idea of what telephone operators experience every day:

Call me not with scornful numbers, Like "two-seven-O-ring-three!" Snapped out in disdainful accents-- Pray, be courteous to me! Would you like to sit here with a Telephone strapped on your head, All day long to answer summons? Would't you wish that you were dead?

When I say the line is busy. Honestly, sometimes it is. Why do you get so indignant When you hear the buzzer's whiz? And wrong numbers--naturally Sometimes I am at a loss; But, in fact, I give them mostly To subscribers who are cross

Be polite. It will not hurt you. Even though I'm in a box, I am human--although hidden-- And am sensitive to knocks. Be polite. Do unto others As you'd have them do to you, It's a good rule to observe--and You'll get better service, too.

Operated On For Appendicitis.

James Herriford, a fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herriford, was conveyed to Elizabeth Hospital, Lebanon, last week, and on Wednesday morning Dr. McChord operated for appendicitis. A letter to Dr. R. Y. Hindman from McChord, received late in the afternoon, same day, stated that he found the appendix and bowels in very bad condition, but the patient was doing very well. Mr. and Mrs. Herriford are with their son. They have the sympathy of the people of this community, and it is hoped that the operation will prove successful and the patient will recover.

Surprise Party.

The young people of Goose creek were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brack Luttrell, Saturday evening. Those present Ira Tarter, Dollie Harris, Boss Tarter, Ruth Wilkerson, Elmer Thomas, Nora Harris, Harrison Sullivan, Emma Sallee, Dallas Wade, Edd Pelley, Tyler Potts, Will Potts and George Tarter.

Celebrated their Golden Wedding.

On April the 10th, 1912, the children, grand children, great grand children, and friends of J. W. and A. M. S. Rexroat of Fronthill, Russell county Ky., met with them to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day and birthday of the latter. J. W. Rexroat being 69 years old and A. M. S. Rexroat being 68 years old. All eight children living, (one dead) were present. Thirty-three grand children, nine great grand children and about one hundred neighbors and friends were also present. All the children living from three to six miles away, and one son living in Cincinnati, Ohio, came all the way to the home of his parents to be with them and his brothers and sisters and friends in celebrating his parents golden wedding.

About 8 o'clock a. m. children and friends began to arrive, some in road wagons, some in buggies, some on horse back and some walking; all bringing baskets filled with as good food as old Kentucky affords, together with many nice presents.

When all had arrived services began 10:30 a. m., by singing with Bro. T. H. Coffey, Fairplay in the lead. Services were further introduced by reading the 9th chapter of the Psalm of David by Rev. M. T. Grim, prayer was then offered by Rev. J. M. Williams thanking God for his goodness and kindness in permitting us to live to meet on this memorable occasion to celebrate the day with old brother and sister.

Rev. M. T. Grim preached using for his text the 42nd verse of the 10th chapter of Luke, and delivered a good sermon all enjoyed it well, because it came from the heart. After preaching the relatives and friends of the old folks came forward with their presents of gold, some silver, together with many other nice presents.

Amount of presents in money $16.40 The old folks appreciated and thanked us very much for our presents.

When our gifts were presented we were dismissed for dinner, the table was there arranged about 75 feet long and filled with food from the baskets. No one ever saw a better dinner than was set, and everybody enjoyed it. The crowd could not consume half of what was on the table, for it was filled to its capacity of the most inviting and delicious food that could be had in old Russell county.

After dinner was served, and what was left on the table was put back in the baskets, it filled them almost as full as they were before dinner. Evening service began by Bro. T. H. Coffey making a good talk. A song was then sung, after which a scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. M. Williams, from the 7th chapter of 1st Corinthians, beginning with the 23rd verse, and reading the remainder of the chapter. Prayer was then offered by Bro. T. H. Coffey, after which Rev. J. M. Williams entered upon his subject, his text being the 20th verse of the 1st chapter of Matthew.

His subject was beautifully delivered, dwelling principally on marriage, and was enjoyed by all. Like Brother Grim, what he said was from the heart.

After preaching the parting song was sung, and the children, grandchildren and friends of the old folks gave them the parting hand in token of their love and friendship, and wished them happy days the remainder of their lives. The best of order prevailed throughout the day, and everybody enjoyed it fine especially all of the old people. They were overjoyed all day because of all their children being with them, and living to see them all profess a hope in Christ. They have a bright prospect of meeting all their children and composing an unbroken family around the throne of God there to dwell and sing forever. A grand son. Marcellus Wilson.

Notice.

I will sit each day from March the 15th, 1912, until May 1st, 1912, at Sparksville, Ky., to receive claims against the estate of Thomas England, assigned.

Dr. J. N. Murrell's professional card is published in this week's paper. He has lately returned from New Mexico, and can be found in his office over Dr. J. N. Page's drug store.

Mr. W. T. Ottley has removed from the dormitory of the public school to Paul Waggener's residence, on Burkesville street.

An Easter Hunt at Pellyton.

Sunday eve at 1 o'clock a large crowd started out in search of 80 eggs hid in W. H. Lemmon's meadow by J. T. Lemmon and W. H. Sinclair. The crowd was composed of both old and young and they succeeded in finding all but 13.

A prize was offered to the one finding the golden egg and Miss Etwa Lemmon won the prize, a nice box of candy. It was a happy crowd and they all departed for home with a wish that they might spend many more happy Easters like this one.

At The Court House.

Dr. Gross Alexander, of Louisville, a leading divine in the Methodist church, preached to a large audience at the M. E. church last Sunday forenoon. He was also greeted with a large congregation Sunday and Monday evenings. This (Tuesday) night Dr. Browder, of Bowling Green, Rev. A. R. Kasey, of Hopkinsville, and Dr. Alexander will address the citizens of the town at the court house. These gentlemen are members of the Board of Education, Louisville Conference. They will have something of interest to tell the people, and every body is cordially invited.

A story is going the rounds that sheriff, in a certain Tennessee county, was noticed with a posse of hands, removing a church building. Members of the denomination that worshipped in it noticed his action and asked what right he had to remove the building. "I am the sheriff in these diggings," said the man, "and the law requires a church to be four miles from a saloon, and I am going to move it"

Many towns in Kentucky have designated certain days as general cleanup days, when all citizens and property owners will unite in an effort to put their premises in clean condition. Such efforts mean much for the community and Columbia ought to follow the example of other cities by having "cleanup" days.

Who Preaches Next Sunday.

Edmonton, Rev. J. R. Crawford, Pleasant Hill, Eld. Z. T. Williams. Columbia, Rev. D. H. Howerton. Columbia, Rev. J. W. Weldon. Tabor, Rev. J. W. Weldon at 3 p. m.

The members of the Baptist church will bear in mind that next Sunday is the last meeting of the quarter for Foreign Missions. Kindly bring your offering for this purpose. The boards to whom we have committed the task of administering this fund are threatened with a heavy debt. Let us do all we can to prevent this hindrance to the progress of our work.

The theme for next Sunday morning at the Baptist church will be "A Lesson from the Letters of the Seven Churches of Asia." The pastor earnestly desires every member to be present as the message will be of vital concern to the church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Wanted.

A man to work for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., in Adair county. Will pay a salary each week and a commission. Address G. R. Holt, Mgr., Campbellsville, Ky.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by Paul Drug Co.

Mr. Luke Lay will farm this season, and he has removed his family from Columbia to Garlin. His daughter, Miss Eva, will remain in town and board with her uncle, Mr. Beecher Pierce. She also retains her position in The News office.

Mr. W. C. Grider, of Montpelier, was in town Monday. He reported that farmers were busy in his locality and that wheat in that part of the county looking fine.

Mr. L. E. Young has removed his jewelry store to the corner room of Columbia Hotel. He invites his friends to call at his new place of business.

There will be an immense crop of tobacco put out in Adair county. Plants in the beds are doing extra well.

JUDGE J. G. WINFREY PASSES TO BEYOND.

Noted for His Wit, Oratory and Chivalry, He Is Mourned by Many.

TWO TERMS AS CITY JUDGE.

After an extended illness, Judge Jordan G. Winfrey, aged 59, a few years ago one of the most prominent figures before the Evansville bar, died early yesterday morning at Madison, Ind. The body will reach this city this morning for burial tomorrow afternoon.

A fluent orator, a tactful judge in city court, and a citizen favorably known, Judge Winfrey had hundreds of friends who were moved by the news of his death. He served for two terms on the city bench and was famous for his deliberations. He was never bound by precedent in his decisions and decided his cases on their merits and from a humanitarian standpoint. Personally he was thoroughly likable and genial at all times. He was a man of fine appearance and erect bearing.

Judge Winfrey became afflicted while serving on the bench in the midst of the Boehne administration. After several months his condition became so alarming that his relatives removed him to a private sanitarium at Cincinnati, Ohio. He grew steadily worse, although at times he was rational and something like his old self. Several months ago he suffered a paralytic stroke on the left side. Later he was removed to the state hospital at Madison.

His wife and daughter were notified of his sudden passing away by telephone. They had just returned from Madison upon advice that he was not in immediate danger. Before they left his bedside the Judge regained partial consciousness and recognized those near and dear to him.

FINE FLOW OF ORATORY

While practicing law in Evansville Judge Winfrey distinguished himself, especially as a criminal lawyer. With his fine flow of oratory and dramatic abilities he became known as a man capable of bringing any jury to tears. One incident is told of him which illustrates his dramatic capabilities. More than ten years ago he defended an Italian who was charged with the murder of his wife. Before the jury he stood with the young child of the murderer. Getting down on his knees and clasping his arms around the slender waist of the little fellow, Judge Winfrey prayed for the youth and for the deliverance of his father. It is said that no more dramatic scene was ever enacted in the circuit court room.

In the city court he gained wide publicity by reviving the whipping post for mischievous boys.

Owing to his splendid bearing Judge Winfrey made a fine appearance on a horse and was regarded as the finest horseman in the state. He was known all over Indiana and liked everywhere. He had few equals as a story teller. As his friends said "he was always telling something new."

The Vanderburg County Bar association will meet Monday to draw up resolutions condoling his death. Many attorneys yesterday in personal expressions deplored his death and spoke well of his career.

"I know Judge Winfrey as a man of striking and congenial personality," said City Attorney George A. Cunningham. "He possessed many of the characteristics of that dash and chivalry for which his native state—Kentucky—is noted. Coming to Evansville some years after I did he soon became a familiar figure and not only in the courts but on public occasions where his handsome presence always marked him for attention. As a lawyer he was best known in jury trials where his force and eloquence as a speaker were impressive and effective."

Judge Azro Dyer said: "Judge Winfrey had a great deal of natural ability, was a good speaker and as good a judge as we ever had. He was regarded as the finest horseback rider in the state, and it is no wonder, he made such a fine appearance. He was very well liked and had a good deal of magnetism. He was well known over the middle west."

PRAISED BY ATTORNEYS.

City Judge P. C. Could, successor of Judge Winfrey on the bench, said: "I think Judge Winfrey's speeches were the most brilliant ever delivered in this section of the country. He was a most agreeable man socially and one of the brightest legal men at the bar. He had a dramatic faculty which was inimitable."

Attorney E. L. Craig said: "Judge Winfrey always treated young attorneys with great consideration in city court. He helped them out as no other judge would do. He treated all alike."

Attorney W. C. Vawter: "I always admired Judge Winfrey. He was a man of high honor and his conduct on the city bench was above reproach. He handed out justice with fine judgment."

Attorney E. Q. Lockyear: "Judge Winfrey's idea of justice between man and man without being bound by any rules of precedent was of high order. He decided a case on its merits rather than by rules of decided cases."

Attorney W. M. Wheeler: "He was likable and a jolly good fellow."

Former Prosecuting Attorney O. R. Luhring: "Judge Winfrey understood city court better than any man. He established many things in dealing out justice which were characteristic of his nature. One of these was the whipping post for wife beaters."

Judge Winfrey was born February 24, 1853, at Burkesville, Ky., the son of Thomas and Virginia Winfrey. He spent most of his boyhood at Burkesville and Columbia, Ky. When seventeen years old he entered Lexington college in Kentucky, graduating four years later. Later he attended the Louisville law school and when twenty-five years old was admitted to the bar at Owensboro, Ky. At Owensboro he was married to Miss Dora Chambers of Henderson, Ky., in 1887. Soon after the death of his wife he located in Evansville and opened a law office in Third street between Locust and Main streets, later moving to Fourth and Vine street. A few months after coming here he was appointed deputy prosecuting attorney under Prosecutor John Brownlee.

He was elected city judge and served two terms under Mayor Akin in the early nineties. He was elected to the office again in 1905 and served until his affliction caused his retirement.

He was married to Mrs. Ida Carpenter, widow of Albert Carpenter and daughter of Colonel Robert Patterson. Mrs. Winfrey's first husband was the only son of Willard Carpenter, the donor of Willard library.

Two sons survive, Thomas C. and Claude, both of this city; also a stepdaughter, Miss Georgia Carpenter, a sister, Mrs. N. B. Miller of Springfield, Mo., and five brothers, Richard L. William and Charles, Winfrey of Dallas, Texas, George Winfrey of Kansas City and Frank Winfrey of Columbia.

From 1892 to 1896 Judge Winfrey was a Major on the staff of Governor Mathews of Indiana. Until his election as city judge he was familiarly known as Major.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home in Carpenter streets, with burial in Oak Hill cemetery.

JUDGE WINFREY DEAD.

Straightforward in his attainments, liberal in his views and rich in wisdom, Judge Jordan G. Winfrey leaves this life with this community a lasting memory of his lovable disposition. He leaves a community where he was loved for his cheerfulness.

He leaves a state where his wit and oratorical forcefulness were often enjoyed. He leaves a host of friends who will never forget his many splendid traits.

On the bench Judge Winfrey dealt out justice as it should be dealt. His compensation should be on the far off shores where he meets the Judge of all mankind.

Everyone has some characteristic by which he is known. With Judge Winfrey it was chivalry. He was a knight of the present day. His manners were perfect. Be met all with a smile and a gripping handshake. His bearing was that of a Kentucky colonel. He attracted favorable attention wherever he went.

In the court room he was a dramatic figure. He was at his best when facing a jury. Later when he sat on the bench in the city court he established many reforms which made him popular with public and the legal profession. One of these was the whipping post for wife beaters. Poor and rich were dealt with alike by the judge. Differences were patched in many homes, whereas in the routine of some courts cold justice would not have been so considerate.

Judge Winfrey was always prominent in politics. He had been in the city only a few months when his abilities drew him into public office, that of the deputy prosecutorship. From then on he was a personage in the public eye. The above was clipped from the Evansville Indiana papers.

Almost a Miracle

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds." It's quick, safe reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Paul Drug Co.

About Weaning Lambs.

Lambs should be weaned when about four months old. In time of weaning, however depends largely upon when the lambs were dropped. Very late lambs should be weaned at a younger age than lambs dropped early in the year. Lambs allowed to run with their mothers until the middle of summer do not make such good gains as those weaned earlier, nor does it give a chance for their dams to recuperate for the breeding season in the fall.

As soon as the lambs are weaned, they should be placed in a pasture field as far away from their dams as possible. In a few days they will have forgotten all about their mothers and will continue eating as usual. Rape or a mixture of oats, peas and vetches are excellent crops to supplement the ordinary pastures during the summer.

Great care must be taken, however, not to turn the sheep in upon rape when hungry, for the rape is very damp, and these conditions are prone to cause bloating and scouring.

Have a Real Garden.

Almost every farm has some sort of a garden, but the great majority have been regarded in a careless way and given but little attention and as a consequence have never yielded anything to compare with a well-made garden. The trucking and market garden industry, while it is a great thing in some sections, is as yet poorly developed in most of the South, although the demand for first-class vegetables is almost everywhere unsatisfied.

With the proper understanding of the possibilities of home gardening in adding to the pleasures of farm life, and the profits to be made from market gardening, the South will no doubt become noted as a land of gardens. The time has come for the real garden to set aside the old makeshift garden, which was in summer a little patch of beans and roast- ingears, and in the fall afforded a few collards and turnips. The real garden will be a well-cared for plot of land where can be, and where will be grown a variety of vegetables through a long season.

Good Advice To Boy Scouts.

Here is a bit of advice which Sir Robert gives American Boys: "As to the boys, I should have liked to urge upon them to go ahead as they have begun."

"To learn cooking, and camping and how to look after themselves in the wild, whether on water or on land."

"To be manly, chivalrous fellows especially by doing good turns daily however small, to the weaker and smaller."

"To join together, as troops or patrols in doing public service, as a matter of duty and not with any idea of being rewarded."

The report of the Stanley committee, soon to be published, will make an excellent campaign document for the Democratic party. Especially that tells of how the colonel—then president—conferred with Messrs. Frick and Gary and allowed the steel trust to swallow the Tennessee Coal and Iron company.

Religious proceedings.

Missionary Institute of the M. E. Church South, Columbia District held at Jamestown, Ky., March 30-31.

Session opened 9 a. m., W. F. Hogard presiding. Scripture lesson 100 Psalm. After religious services W. S. Knight was elected secretary and J. H. Stone assistant.

First topic on the program—Should we pay our assessments and why? was very ably discussed by the Presiding Elder, followed by J. L. Murrell, who briefly explained the different Conference claims. Bro. Murrell also read a very beautiful poem of his own composing—The Heathen World, after which J. W. Caughron preached from St. John 1:45.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Next topic—Pastors Duty to Missions in giving and collecting. J. L. Murrell handled this subject in a very able manner, followed by the Presiding Elder.

Next topic—How do you raise these—your plan. J. L. Piercy handled this subject with distinction, and suggested some very practicable plans. Hogard, Tarter and Knight joined in the discussion of this topic.

NIGHT SESSION.

After song service and prayer, the Presiding Elder read and commented on Matt., 18: 12-14. J. L. Murrell then gave a lecture on Gods Idea of Money.

Next topic, —The part our Lay Leaders ought to take in these to bring best results—was discussed by W. S. Knight, followed by Bro. Hogard and others.

SUNDAY MORNING SESSION 10 A. M.

After song services and prayer the Presiding Elder read the 116th Psalm, and made some very appropriate comments and announced that the time had come for the Love Feast and made a brief explanation of the custom. Quite a number of those present testified briefly to their religious experience which resulted in a very pleasant session.

Bro. Hogard preached from Mark 16:15—The Great Commission—and left no ground whatever for disbelievers to stand upon. Sacrament of the Lords supper after the sermon.

AFTERNOON SESSION 2 P. M.

After song service Bro. Piercy read 1st John 20: 1-15 with appropriate comment.

Next topic (How and by what system have our women accomplished so much.) This topic was discussed by Mrs. D. T. Tarter to the satisfaction of all present, and brought about a general good feeling in the entire audience.

Bros. Hogard, Murrell, Piercy and Knight made appropriate remarks on the women part of the work.

SUNDAY NIGHT.

The session closed with a very forcible sermon, on Revelation 22: 17, by J. L. Murrell, who handled this farewell prayer to the satisfaction of a large audience.

Appropriate resolutions on entertainment and the social part of the occasion were adopted, and every one appeared to have been benefited by the Institute having been held here.

W. S. Knight Secty.

The National Citizens' League, composed of business men, with organizations in every state in the Union, is prosecuting a campaign of education to secure the passage of a law by Congress, which will prevent panics, safeguard deposits in banks, wrest financial control from Wall Street and save the taxpayers millions of dollars. If you would hear more about the plan write to Secretary W. P. Walton, who is in charge of the Kentucky Branch of the League in the Equitable Building, Louisville, and receive free literature on the subject

Short Stops.

Why doesn't an ice floe flow.

There seems to be no kind of insect powder that is fatal to humbugs.

The forty immortals have slid back into obscurity, and all is forgiven.

There never before was a time when the world had so many ex-potentates.

The peach crop promises to be big enough for cholera morbus purposes.

Other seeds may be higher this year, but seeds of kindness will cost no more.

What a pity that the average man has no place to store away ice for a dusty day!

It was with difficulty that Lake Michigan was kept from freezing from shore to shore this winter.

Somebody has said "we are what we eat." We doubt it especially when we eat boiled cabbage and turnips.

Doctors saved the life of a New York man whose neck was broken. But he will still have to live in New York.

China invented fireworks a good many hundred years before it had an independence day to explode them on.

Automatic starters may be all right for automobiles, but they would never do to set a political campaign in motion.

Though a Minnesotaman caught a ton of fish with his hands, others have made greater catches with their imaginations.

The couples who get married in a flying machine evidently do not desire much elaborate ceremonies—just a plane wedding.

Fashion notes make it easy to foretell that ladies' hats will be high and pocketbooks retain their usual shape of flatness.

Golf balls are to be cheaper. But we cannot paraphrase Marie Antoinette and eat golf balls if we can't have bread.

We await anxiously the time when the little ex-Empor Pu Yi will begin making attempts to come back. They all do it.

A gun made of cement is one of the latest devices for war purposes. It is dangerous to stand either at the muzzle or the breech.

We take off our hat to the pulmotor, which not only draws suicides back from the dark shore, but patches up their lovers' quarrels.

Let us take time to speak sweet foolish words to those we love. By and by, when they can no longer hear us, our foolishness will seem more wise than our best wisdom.

How to Kill Your Town.

Buy from peddlers as much and as often as possible.

Denounce your merchant because they make a profit on their goods.

Glory in the downfall of a man who has done much to build up your town.

Make your town out a bad place and stab it every chance you get.

Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of the material interests of the people.

Tell your merchant that you can buy goods a great deal cheaper in some town and charge them with extortion. If a stranger comes to your town tell him everything is overdone and predict a general crash in the near future.

Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own and then denounce yours for not being as large and as cheap as the city papers.

Sparks From a Political Anvil.

Some men claim to be progressive merely because they have been jarred loose.

Some politicians are like cuckoo—they expect their eggs to be hatched by somebody else.

A hat in the ring with nothing under it doesn't cut much figure.

These are days when a lot of political promises are read with Jacob voices from manuscripts written by Esau hands.

Anyhow, and also, we now have "revision apart" in Republican ranks, even if we did fail to get revision downward.

When presidential aspirants of like faith disagree the public has a chance to get at the real facts.

Suggestions to the Farmer.

It is possible that a few suggestions may be made, which, if followed, will in part lessen a great deal of suffering, loss and expense. An animal, warm from work, should not be allowed to drink large quantities of water.

Pick up loose nails, pull them, or bend them over if they are found in boards.

Keep the garden rake and scythe where they cannot be knocked down.

Wash and oil the collars occasionally. Two minutes work at the end of the day is sufficient to keep the surface of a collar clean, soft and pliable. A damp sponge and a cake of harness soap kept in the curry-comb box are the only equipment needed.

Shoulder galls are due to one of two things; dirty or ill-fitting collars. There is no excuse for either.

A farmer has to keep about 20 sheep a whole year to get wool enough to buy a suit of clothes. One sheep will produce wool enough to make the suit. The other nineteen sheep are kept to pay manufacturers, distributors and others.

Just a few hours of exposure to a driving windstorm will chill lambs so that they never will be quite so good as they would otherwise.—Farmers Home Journal.

No one wants an impertinent swaggering, cigarette smoking boy about an office, or as a clerk, bookkeeper or stenographer. Girls do not acquire the detestable habits and are, therefore, getting the places.

Notice Stock Men.

Breed to the best string of Stock in Kentucky for the Least Money

REX PAULL

This Celebrated young Stallion will make the present season (1912) at our barn at Roley, Ky., for the sum of $12.00 for a mare colt, or $10.00 for a horse colt. Rex Paull is registered 2928 in the American Saddle Horse Breeding Association.

DESCRIPTION: Rex Paull is 16 hands high, a dark bay, with fine mane and tail. He is 5 years old and weighs 1195 pounds.

Rex Paull has defeated more Stallions in the Fairs, as a show horse, than any other horse in this part of the State. His colts won the blues over the colts of four counties. His colts eleven months old, 700 pounds, and is 14½ hands high.

We insure all colts to get up and suck. Lean retained on all colts. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

ROYAL PEACOCK

At the same time and place we will offer the service of Royal Peacock, who is a combined saddle and harness horse, nine years old, a model in form and action. He is the sire of some of the best colts in Adair county. He will be permitted to serve mares for $7.00. This is a rare opportunity to breed to this horse, as you will probably never have another chance to breed for this small fee. He was sired by Old Peacock, owned by Thompson Bros., Lebanon, Tenn. His first dam was Capt. Harper's blooded mare, by Young Clipper. He will stand on the insure plan, the money due when the colt is foaled or mare parted with, or traded or sold.

BEAUCHAMP

Will make the present season, (1912) at our stable at Roley at $8.00 to insure a living colt all right.

BEAUCHAMP is 8 years old, 15½ hands high, black with mealy points, heavy bone and muscle. Beauchamp has proven himself to be one of the best mule Jacks in this part of the State, imparting size and style to his gets. His mules were among the best in the county last year, and brought top prices.

Beauchamp was sired by Ben McFarland's fine Jack and his dam was a well bred Jennet by John McFarland's 16 hand Jack.

Money due when colt is foaled, mare bred to other stock, traded or removed from neighborhood. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

JEFF: This fine Jack will make the present season at the same place, at $6.00 for a mare colt or $5.00 for a horse colt. Jeff is a coal black with white points, and heavy bone and muscle. This Jack has proven himself to be one of the finest breeders in the country. Stock men will do well to see this line of stock before breeding.

Stock will have our personal attention. We will pasture a limited number of mares at $2. per month, or a reasonable price for grain.

Announcements

For Congress

We are authorized to announce Jack Chinn a candidate for Congress in the eighth district, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held August, 3rd.

The damage by recent high waters in the Mississippi Valley is so large it can not be estimated with any degree of accuracy. It is said it will reach many millions of dollars.

It is now believed that the Democratic State convention will be held early in May. The Executive Committee will meet in Louisville in a few days to fix the time and place.

General Frederick Dent Grant, the oldest son of Gen. U. S. Grant, died in New York on the morning of the 12th. He was the Commander of the Department of the East, U. S. A.

The Adair county delegates to the Republican State convention were seated in the Eighth Congressional district, and Mr. W. A. Coffey, of this place, was named as a member of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Roosevelt carried Pennsylvania easily. Out of sixty-four electoral votes he elected fifty. Taft fourteen. When the State convention convenes the entire vote of the State will more than likely be instructed for Roosevelt. Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, also carried the State.

Many Republicans of Adair are saying some very hard things of the men who led in the recent county convention. It is a fight among themselves and so far as we are concerned it can continue, as we are not expecting any bloodshed. Just a war of words.

The New York delegation will go to Chicago uninstructed, but in the State convention the administration of President Taft was endorsed, and the delegates elected are for him. It is reasonable to conclude that the President will secure the vote of the State.

Ex-President Roosevelt and Speaker Champ Clark had easy sailing in Illinois. The former defeated Mr. Taft and LaFollett for Presidential preference by a plurality of 110,000 to 115,000. Clark, the Democratic candidate, won over Woodrow Wilson by a majority of something akin 150,000.

If the National Citizen's League can secure a law that will render panics almost impossible and wrest financial control from Wall Street, it will be a great achievement, and one in which everybody will be interested. Drop a postal card to Secretary W. P. Walton, at the headquarters of the Kentucky branch of the League, No. 517 Equitable Building, Louisville, and he will send you literature bearing on the subject.

It is time for the Democrats of Tennessee to bury all differences and get together. As a result of the split that State elected a Republican Governor. The death of Senator Bob Taylor made it necessary for his successor to be appointed by the Governor, and he named Newell Sanders, a Republican, of Chattanooga. To us it seems that Governor Hooper would have done the proper thing if he had appointed Hon. Alf Taylor, who is a Republican and a brother to the deceased Senator.

The following is from the Anderson County News:

Brer. Saufley and "the" Congressman made a "flying visit" to the State of Adair several days ago and on their return, in a three column "write-up" of that good and thriving city, he is satisfied that "the" Congressman will carry the county handsomely. Brer. Saufley, did your candidate display any effort to get Casey and Adair in this district? If so, what Representative and Senator did he ask to support the redistricting bill, as passed? Did he ever in private, or public interview, before the bill passed, say one word in behalf of the gallant Casey and Adair democracy coming into this district? No. He is one of his interviews before the bill passed:

"Anent the taking out of the Eighth district the county of Rockcastle, Congressman Harvey Helm, who represents the Eighth, says: 'I characterize the effort to put Rockcastle in the Eleventh as extremely small politics, and that the people behind the move are making it for reasons other than the general good and welfare of the party.'"

Does he express in the above interview how "crazy" and "happy" he would be if they were placed in his district? No. Not one word fell from his lips in approval of same. You know the reason why he didn't? He didn't believe that gallant Senators Hubble and Dowling could pass the bill through the Senate and House, bringing those two splendid counties into this district and taking them out of the republican wilderness, but they did pass the bill and the Governor signed it and the two Senators above urged him to do it. Did your Congressman write or wire the Governor to sign the bill? No. Did you? No. Here is another interview of your Congressman, after the bill had passed, sent to the Courier-Journal, on March 10th, from Arthur Krock, a thoroughly reliable and most excellent gentleman and correspondent, which reads as follows:

"While those Kentucky counties which were switched about in the congressional redistricting act are trying to remember who represents them in Washington, the members affected spent the day here in study of mailing lists, maps and histories of Kentucky. Representatives J. C. Cantrill arrived to-night and Representatives Harvey Helm, W. J. Fields and Caleb Powers were here last night when the news came of the passage of the redistricting act. There was a great exchanging of mailing lists on the part of Congressional secretaries, but the upshot was that each member discovered anew that Kentucky counties are pretty much the same. Familiar names were found on the lists and friends and supporters were discovered in every county added to replace those lost in counties taken away. 'I hate to lose Rockcastle,' said Mr. Helm to-night, 'but Casey and Adair are great little commonwealths themselves. Just say for me that I hope they will like me as well as I like them.' The others spoke in similar vein."

Just think of Congressman Helm sending his private secretary, Mr. George L. Willis, to act in conjunction with the private secretary of Caleb Powers, after he, on one occasion, had refused to speak to Caleb? Did he say in this interview he was proud and glad that Casey and Adair had come into this district? No. He said instead: "But Casey and Adair are great little commonwealths themselves. Just say for me that I hope they will like me as well as I like them." Oh, how lovely of him to so express himself in words of everlasting praise. He didn't mind sending to Caleb them, because Caleb had the names probably of the democrats on his mailing list, as well as the republicans; but Caleb was "dear" to his heart on this occasion, even through a "go between."

We welcomed the good counties of Casey and Adair to come into our congressional district before the redistricting bill passed and urged our good governor to sign it, and we believe firmly those counties will be in the democratic column safely before many moons wax and wane. Brer Harris, of the News, at Columbia, is one of these kind of democrats in whom there is no guile and does yeoman service for his party through his splendid newspaper in behalf of democratic nominees, and the editor of THE ANDERSON NEWS hopes to have the pleasure, soon, of his acquaintance.

The spring term at Bowling Green State Normal closed last week. The Adair county girls and boys all passed.

Dora, twelve year old daughter of Prof. C. R. Payne, died at Burkesville Monday night. The interment will be in the Columbia cemetery this (Wednesday) afternoon at 5 o'clock. The remains arrived last evening.

A most helpful, a most entertaining sermon, clothed in correct English, though delivered in simplicity, came from Dr. Gross Alexander Monday evening at the Methodist church. It was heard by the students of the Lindsey-Wilson and residents of the town. It is not a surprise that a gentleman of Dr. Alexander's scholarly attainments possesses an inter-state reputation. He is a great writer and a great preacher.

"The World in Cincinnati."

In my last letter I promised to tell something of "The World in Cincinnati." It is an Exposition of World Wide Missions, or the Missionary World in miniature. Music hall is one of the most suitable places for such an exhibition that could be found in any American city. The large auditorium will seat 6,000 people. The halls on either side of the building have ample room to represent all the nations in the world. This was the third Exposition of the kind that has been held in the world. The first one was "The Orient in London," the second one was "The World in Boston. Its purpose is the awakening, the educating and the inspiring of Christian America at heart in the World Wide Missions. The Missionary Education Movement of New York, representing the interest of all the Home and Foreign boards of the United States is back of it. It is not a money-making machine. $30,000 was subscribed by the people of Cincinnati to guarantee the expenses, and I heard one of the committee say three days before it closed that it lacked $500 then of paying expenses. I am thankful to our Heavenly Father for the opportunity of seeing. Wish more of our people could have seen it. First, I will take you through the nations as exhibited in the great halls of the building.

We first enter China in the North hall, where both ancient and modern China exhibits are shown. We enter into a typical Chinese village. In the center is a great pagoda towering above the others. At one side is a temple with numerous idols, its great temple bell. Next to this may be found a shrine with three Buddhist figures in it. Then shops devoted to curios, an opium den with its full equipment, is found there. There were women there who were dressed in the costumes of the country. Then the Missionaries tell you about the work in China. The many diseases that the people are afflicted with. Then we pass through the Japanese department, and you see an exhibit of her resources and progress. About 50,000,000 people live in Japan. Korea is now a part of Japan. It is a beautiful country in its scenery and buildings. The temple of Buddha is a large building with its strange roof lines, and one large image of Buddha and two small ones. They have their curios and native costumes as in the Chinese department. You see their shops and stores and how bargains are made in this interesting country. You are told all about their manners and customs by those who represent that country. Miss Stella Lewis, of Lincoln county, Ky., who has spent seven years in Japan, is one of the missionaries who can tell you about it.

Then you pass into India, a land of beautiful architecture wonderful elaborate in character. They have more Gods than any other nation in the world. They are said to worship 330,000,000 gods. It is the oldest protestant missionary find in the world in modern missions. William Carey in Calcutta, in 1793 is the beginning of modern missions there. A great work has been done for the Lord in these 100 years.

We next pass into Burmah with its 12,000,000 population where Judson began his work in 1813. It is a land of Buddhism and Pagodas. An Old Citizen Dead.

Mr. Eli'ah Sublett, who lived at Cane Valley, and at one time one of the best known men in Adair county, died last Friday afternoon. He was eighty-five years old and had been an invalid for thirty years. He was highly respected, a great reader, and a man of fine sense.

Why He Was Lgt.

"What made you so late?" "I met Smithson." "Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."

"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."

"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"

"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by Paull Drug Co.

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your menace and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of legions of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been instantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents, and it has been truthfully said that more druggists use it personally in their families than any other laxative.

Letters recently received from M. E. Myers, Morrison, Tenn., and Ada Hammersmith, 215 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, Ky., are but a few of thousands showing the esteem in which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is held. It is mild, gentle, non-gripping—not violent, like salts or cathartics. It cures gradually and pleasantly so that in time nature again does its own work without outside aid. Constipated people owe it to themselves to use this grand bowel specific.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

LOCUST - GROVE - STOCK - FARM

RAVEN BIRD

Stock that will make the Season of 1912 at my Barn.

RAVEN BIRD

Sired by Red Bird 1956, he by Cabell's Joe Brown 1955, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234, by Gist's Black Hawk.

1st dam Authilia Thompson, by Thompson's Lexington, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234 By Gist's Black Hawk. 2nd dam by Caldwell's Denmark, he by King Denmark. 3rd dam Bonie, by Old Nat Brown 81.

Raven Bird is a beautiful mahogany bay full 16 hands high, 6 years old, he has the best of eyes feet and legs, a beautiful head and neck, a very heavy well set tail, which he at all times carries to perfection. He possesses extreme speed, style and action, and the most perfect disposition of any stallion I have ever seen or handled. He has fine distinct gaits, and goes them all in a most attractive manner. You will note from his breeding that he has for his sire the famous old Red Bird, who has perhaps sired as many show, and sale horses as any stallion in Kentucky, and traces on his dam's side to Cabell's Lexington, conceded by all horsemen to be one of the greatest sires that ever lived. Raven Bird is one of Red Bird's greatest sons, and has proven himself an excellent breeder, and we have every reason to believe that, if he is given an opportunity he will make a reputation equal to that of his worthy sire. Service fee $10.00 to insure a living colt.

Alexander's Artist 4517 A. S. H. R.

Sired by Fayette Artist 4516 he by Kentucky Artist 1455, he by Artist Montrose 51, he by Artist 75 by King William 67.

1st dam Louise Cabell 5900 by Red Squirrel 53. 2nd dam Juelle C. 1304 by Jewel Denmark 70, by Washington Denmark 64. 3rd dam by Dew Drop, by Cabell's Lexington. Alexander's Artist is a beautiful red chestnut, five years old, 15½ hands high. You will note from the above that there are few if any better Stallions in Kentucky. He is a grand individual and in every way as good as his breeding. He is thoroughly broken to double and single harness, and nicely gaited, in fact he is a combined horse of high class, and presents a magnificent appearance anywhere you place him. His future as a show horse and as a producer of saddle horses, will compare most favorably with the best. Fee, $10.00 to insure a living colt.

Marion

Marion is a black Jack with white points, 6 years old, 15 hands high, extra good length, heavy bone and foot, good head and ears. He has lots of substance, in fact he has all of the desirable features of a first-class Jack. He has proven himself very sure and a most excellent breeder. Service fee $10.00 to insure a living colt.

The above described stock will do service at my barn in Columbia.

I am prepared to take care of mares sent to me from a distance. Mares pastured at $2.00 per month, or fed at $8.00. In all cases money is due and must be paid, when mares are bred to other stock, traded, parted with or removed from neighborhood. All stock will receive my personal attention, and due care will be taken to prevent accidents and escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roy visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Maupin last Sunday.

Miss Lora Bell, of Columbia, visited her sister Miss Pearl Bell Thursday night.

Mr. Solomon Turpen will preach at Concord the first Sunday in April.

Mr. Luke Morris, who has been in very poor health for some time is no better.

The singing at Shiloh last Sunday, conducted by Prof. Cabell, was largely attended.

Obituary.

On the evening of March 24, 1912, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Johnson, and claimed for its victim the spirit of little Allen Coleman, and took him home to God. He was a victim of croupious pneumonia, and was the youngest child, born Nov., 17, 1911, making him 4 months and 7 days old. All was done that loving hands could do, but God in His mysterious way saw fit to take him where death or sad parting never come. It is so hard for us to submit to God's will, but he doeth all things well. Weep not dear parents and friends, he has gone to rest in that beautiful city, and is now a bright angel beckoning to those left behind, and it will be only a short time until we shall meet him again in that heavenly land, and may the bereaved family live closer to God, the giver and taker of all that is good and true.

The little cradle empty now.
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy
In death's cold arm doth lie.
Go little pilgrim, to thy home
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here, but soon will come
Where thou hast gone before.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

Milwaukee Has Enough.

Perhaps the most significant outcome of Tuesday's primaries in Wisconsin is not the easy victory of Senator La Follette, but the remarkably complete overturn of the Socialist regime in Milwaukee. There the vote was 25 per cent heavier than when Mayor Seidel was elected, while the majority of his opponent was not far short of one-half the Mayor's total vote. At the same time the new City Council resumes the complexion familiar in American cities and therefore, presumably, such as they prefer.

Why this reversal? Perhaps we shall not greatly err if we remark that the tenets of the Socialist party had very little to do with it, and that those who talk so glibly of "redeeming" an American city take too much for granted. The Socialists, by general consent, gave Milwaukee a good government, a clean government and one reasonably efficient, if efficiency may be considered apart from its cost, which was extravagant; they did not keep all their promises, no party ever does and so they made some enemies among their own people, they seem to have multiplied jobs, always a temptation with the "outs," and they certainly were lavish spenders, indiscriminate is perhaps not too broad a term.

But to call them a "disgrace" and to label them as "anarchists" is to speak with more malice than knowledge. Milwaukee has had enough, for the time being, not of Socialism, but of a riot of high living—Louisville Times.

Four Things To Do.

There are four things in connection with our live stock which should receive more attention.

(1) Better protection from wind and rain, especially for the young animals and milk cows.

(2) More and better feed.

(3) Protection from lice and ticks

(4) More and better care of the manure.

If we prepare to do these things, and do them, much more profit will come from our live stock.—Farmers Home Journal.

Expert Julian Kennedy, of Pittsburg, says the profits of the steel trust were enormously increased through its ownership of railroads. Possibly true, as far as it goes. But its real increase of outrageous profits came from Payne tax bills and indifference on the part of Messrs. Roosevelt and Taft.

Two Shows.

What "Billy Sunday" is to the pulpit, Col. Roosevelt is to the stump. His picturesque utterance invariably draw a large crowd. But it seems that in New York Mr. La Follette, of Wisconsin, who has just triumphed over Col. Roosevelt in North Dakota, is even a bigger show.

The Herald's report of the Carnegie Hall speech of Mr. Roosevelt leads off with the following paragraphs:

In his first public speech since he threw his hat in the ring a few weeks ago, Theodore Roosevelt last night in Carnegie Hall reaffirmed his belief in the efficacy of the recall, initiative and referendum, referred to President Taft as a good man of a slightly fossilized type, dared the New York newspapers to display his utterances in their headlines, and paid his respects to William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee, and Timothy L. Woodruff, of Brooklyn.

An audience that filled the big auditorium comfortably but which did not approach the proportions of the one that greeted Senator La Follette in the same hall two months ago gave the one time President a cordial welcome. Several times in the courses of his speech he warned his listeners up to the point where they cheered and waved handkerchiefs and yelled Teddy.

And as there are thousands of persons who willingly go to hear Mr. La Follette but who would not vote for him, it is reasonable to believe that Mr. Roosevelt's boom is not actually as large as his audiences might indicate.—Frankfort News.

Likes the Law.

Decatur, Ky., March, 28, 1912. Editor News:

The last session of the General Assembly passed a bill adding Agriculture to the curriculum of the common schools of Ky. The interest of the public could not be better served or the pupils of the common schools of the State more profited than by the teaching of Agriculture.

The law does not become operative till July 1, 1914, this gives ample time for teachers to prepare for the work.

The writer taught in Arkansas in 1908 and 1909 and also in the State of Georgia in 1910-11 and this experience proves to him the value of agricultural training.

The boys corn clubs in Georgia have aroused an abiding interest among the farmers of the State, which is resulting in increased profits to the people.

The corn clubs of Ky., will be more interesting and spirited when the young minds get an insight into the beauties of nature through agricultural instruction.

The time has come when we must teach for country life and not altogether "cold facts," but rather facts "full of the life about us" and more boys and girls will want to stay on the farm.

How many ever even finished the common school course? What is the reason? The pupil "wants to farm and so don't need to go to school." Another fact I wish to touch upon and one that is being put into practice in some places, namely: The employment of teachers through the trustee who has a son, daughter, or close kin "who needs the school and on whom, many times the trustee has to wait to see if they make a certificate," thus holding off teachers who have had experience and training. But what is your remedy? Why simply a ruling, or better a law prohibiting the employment of "close kin" by the trustees.

This would save much trouble for the teachers and enable them to do splendid work by placing them where there would be less factional strife.

If this does not find the waste basket I may come again sometime.

Respt.

The price paid is not known. While in conversation with Mr. Moss, he informed us that the timber was for sale, however, if they do not sell at once they would go to working it up into staves, etc. Messrs. Moss and Nelson have been in the timber business so long that they can almost tell the profit in a tree standing in the woods. We anticipate them a nice profit on this body of timber.

Dr. S. Simmons, the well-known physician, of this town and community, is dangerously sick at this time with pneumonia fever. It is hoped by his many friends here that a change for the better will soon come.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Harper tender their sincere thanks to the people of this town and community for their kindness and good attention that they gave them during the recent sickness of Mr. Harper, who has very recently recovered from a very dangerous case of complication of diseases. Mr. Harper informed your reporter that it was nothing less than a good christian spirit in the people and it would never be erased from his memory.

Mr. J. J. Stotts and family are again citizens of our little village. Mr. Stotts will do the carpenter work on the new school-house being built at this place.

Messrs. Lee Burbridge, J. W. Burbridge, O. L. McClister, Rich McClister and Waller Hurt and wife, all of the Gadberry neighborhood were at the bedside of J. W. McClister at different times the past week.

Miss Jane Taylor Lewis, Amandaville, visited here a day or two last week.

J. W. McClister who has been very low for the past three or four weeks is no better.

J. G. Campbells is hauling heading blocks for Mr. Gaston on West Fork in Cumberland county this week.

Miss Kitty Lewis, Inroad, who has been visiting relatives here several weeks returned home last Wednesday.

Mrs. Mose Wooten and children visited relatives at Bliss several days last week.

Edith.

B. N. Gilpin, Grocery drummer was calling on our merchants Wednesday.

Mr. Walkup, Tombstone agent Garlin, was here last Thursday.

Mr. Ben Jones, Pellyton, and Miss Ermine Chelf, Roley, were quietly married last Wednesday at Acton. Miss Cora Corneal and Mr. Will Corneal were the attendants.

Evans Bros, were in the city market the first of the week with a nice drove of fat hogs.

Miss Mary Jones, of Pellyton, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Bettie Harmon.

Mr. G. L. Perryman is delivering fruit trees in this section.

Miss Gertrude Murrah arrived here from the city last Saturday with a nice up-to-date stock of millinery goods, and is now busy supplying the ladies of this section with hats.

Niss Minnie Knifley who has been in school at Bowling Green since Jan. returned home last Saturday.

Mr. Joe Allen, Lincoln Co., is in this vicinity looking for hogs.

In the last issue of the "News" I noticed in the letter from the Longstreet correspondent, that mention is made of Clear Spring school, and the political inclination of a certain citizen in regard to the school the coming session, which is news to me, though a resident of the above named district. I am bitterly opposed to the influence of politics, in connection with school work in any shape or form.

Yet, there are other things that can be introduced in the school that are just as abominable, corruptible and disgraceful to the good name of education, as the "political throttle." Among them may be mentioned a trustee, that because of prejudice will go against the will of the district by trying to employ some one to teach the school, that the majority of the district does not want, and by circulating reports over the district which they cannot prove in regard to certain teachers, just because they do not like them personally, and by promising them school to a certain teacher in preference to any one and then going back on that promise without any direct cause whatever.

I believe the above has just as bad, if not a worse effect than politics upon the workings of the school. While the majority of trustees work for the interest of their district and do not commit any of the above mistakes, yet occasionally you will find an exception, or at least I have known such to be the case a few times.

Memorial.

On April the 5th, 1912, the death angel visited the vicinity of Garlin, and claimed for its victim dear grandpa.

T. J. Conover was born Oct., 29, 1836, making him 75 years, 5 months and 6 days when the end came.

He was twice married, his first wife being Susana Bryant, and to this union twelve children were born. His second wife was Maud Sallee, who still survives him.

He professed faith in Christ in his early life and joined the Baptist church at Columbia, in which he lived a consistent member until the end came.

A little over two years ago he was stricken with paralysis and lay helpless until his death, but he bore his affliction with patience, and said it was the Lord's will that he should suffer that way. But as Jesus took pity on the paralytic and healed him, he saw fit to call dear grandpa from the suffering of this disease and make him a shining angel up in heaven.

He leaves a wife and twelve children to mourn for him. All that loving hearts could do was done, but God saw fit to take him from this old sinful world, and place him in paradise. Grandpa, goodbye,

This last farewell we all must say to you, Indeed, 'tis sad, but more sad would be if your life had not been true.

You have left a dark and sinful world For a bright home above, Where sickness and trouble come not, But all is peace and love.

'Tis hard to part with friends that are dear,

And our lives will lonely be, But God in His wisdom is calling The pure and noble across the sea.

Our Savior's words you have obeyed In many an honorable way, None knew you but to love you; None named you but to praise.

You never raised your voice in wrath, But was always calm and mild, Your willing hands were ever ready To help in time of need.

Dear uncles and aunts, 'tis Oh! so sad No Father's face to see, But do not grieve, for after a while You will meet on the eternal shore.

Grandma, your life is lonely now, The dearest from you is gone, But prepare and live so that You will meet him in the celestial city on high.

Now dear grandpa, one last good bye, Till God bids us meet again On that bright and golden shore, In a home not made with hands.

A Niece.

Farmers of this vicinity are becoming interested in farm work but the rain continues.

The recent rain swelled the creeks very much, Wolf creek being higher than it has been since the civil war. Fencing seems to be an object since the high water.

The sale of Bryant Dunbar, deceased amounted to several hundred dollars. Stock of all kinds brought a fair price.

Mrs. Mollie Smith, wife of M. S. Smith, passed quietly away at her home. Her remains were laid to rest in the grave yard at Cumberland ridge church. She will be missed by her friends and relatives of which there are many. She was a grand daughter of the merchant, John Johnson.

T. R. Meece, of Ono, sold one cow for $53. to Mr. Turpin a stock dealer.

Mr. Luther Dunbar is very sick at this writing.

Mr. C. C. Layfavers and Mrs. Wilson the widow of William Wilson, were married to day

Prof. A. G. Coffey will teach a singing school at Jabez five Saturdays and Sundays, we hope it will be crowned with success.

There will be singing at Ono next Sunday beginning at five a. m.

The little boy of James Smith is very sick at present, but we hope he will be better soon.

The boys are returning from Bishop, Texas, saying the weather was much warmer than they ever dreamed of. They say it is a nice country but to warm for a Kentuckian.

Flour is gradually advancing, corn seems to be plentiful. Hay is scarce in this section.

Gadberry.

Mrs. Sarah Bird and Mrs. Lizzie Frankum are on the sick list.

Miss Sallie B. Bailey was visiting Miss Virgie Bird one day last week.

Mrs. Susie Willis was to see her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Bird, last Sunday.

Miss Maud Stone was visiting on Rock river one day last week.

I will tell the readers of the News how to kill worms on cabbage. Put green walnut leaves among the cabbage and you will have no worms.

Mr. James Frankum had a log rolling one day last week.

Mr. Robert John's eyes are very much improved and his many friends are glad to hear of it.

Hanna's Green Seal

"The Made-to-Wear Paint"

If you expect to do any painting, you are interested—you should be—in the quality of the paint to be used.

In any given job of painting, labor represents practically two-thirds, material one-third the cost.

It stands to reason that with so much expense in labor, the enduring quality of the paint is all important.

Why have the painting done unless the protection and durability of the job is sought?

How is one to determine the true value and obtain paint that may be depended upon for durability?

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT IS NOT A SECRET. This paint has the printed formula on every package.

The makers have confidence and take pride in the quality and tell the public the composition of the paint.

IS THIS OF ANY VALUE TO YOU? IT OUGHT TO BE.

JORDAN PEACOCK.

Jordan Peacock, No. 1148 will make the present season at McKinney, Lincoln Co. I have placed him in the hands of Mr. Dick Scudder for this season.

NOBLE PEACOCK.

This fine young Stallion will make the season at my barn in Gradyville, Ky., at the low price of $15.00 to insure a living colt. Noble Peacock, is of Jordan Peacock, first dam by Artist Jewel, 2 dam by Cronwell Denmark 73. 3rd. dam by Artist 75. This is one of the best bred Stallion in Kentucky and is a first-class Saddle horse, has been shown several times and always in the money. If you want to raise a good colt and one that will bring a good price bred to Noble.

TWO FINE JACKS.

My two fine Jacks will serve mares for $10.00 for a mare mule and $8.00 for a horse mule, to insure a mare with foal

They are two of the best Jacks that was ever in Adair county. Last year was the first season for Black Diamond and the second season for Highway. Their colts sold last fall from $70.00 to $125.00. Average $91.83.

Parties that sold some of these mules: Henry Parson 1 for $100.00; P. N. Blades 2 for $250.00; Luther England 1 for $85.00; Albert Brummett 1 for $85.00; Robert O. Keltner 1 for $80.00; C. M. Hindman 1 for $77.50; Huston Bradshaw 1 for $75.00, and Squire Kemp 1 for $80.00.

These are just a few that brought these prices. I measured 46 of Highways colts last fall that was from 3 feet 5 in. to 3 feet 9 in. at 7 days old; they averaged 3 feet 6 in. Now if you want mules that bring the most money you can get them at my stable. My Jacks have the size. Money due if mares or traded and leave the neighborhood.

Respectfully,

W. L. GRADY.
